THREE LIVES TAKEN BY FOREST FIRES IN NORTH CALIFORNIA

Two Towns Scorched and Extensive Property Damage Results From Flames Raging Out of Control—Blaze Turns Towards Sonora After Striking Standard City

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16 (P)—Scores of fires burned through tinder-dry forests in Northern California tonight, leaving three persons dead, two towns scorched and extensive property damage. Hundreds of fighters struggled to control the flames. Fires threatened Standard City and Soulsbyville, but were reported to have veered away after destroying several outlying buildings. Residents of both towns fled.

Observers later reported the flames had turned toward Sonora, to the west, after destroying seventeen shacks at Standard City.

Soulsbyville escaped, except for the loss of a few buildings, when the flames jumped the town proper and roared on through the forest. Residents had soaked roofs of their homes to save them.

The flames originated at Tuolumne, where they destroyed 10,000,000 feet of lumber.

SWEEPS THROUGH PARK

Flames sweeping through Memorial Park at Grass Valley took the life of Richard Smith, nineteen-month-old son of J. D. Smith, a tinsmith. His tent caught fire. Smith led his little son, his wife and his daughter out of the flames, but the boy died. The little daughter was severely burned.

Mrs. Amy Gertrude Richey, fifty, died in the flaming ruins of her home at Grimes, Colusa County.

Peter Waldeck, sixty-nine, was fatally burned at his cabin near Kelsey.

TO WIPE OUT PRIVATE PROFIT

French Air Minister Will Nationalize Factories for Airplanes Immediately

PARIS, Oct. 16 (P)—In the first step towards wiping out private profit in the manufacture of arms, Air Minister Pierre Cot announced tonight he would immediately nationalize all French factories producing airplanes and accessories for national defense.

His action follows the passage by Parliament on August 11 of Prime Blum's bill to nationalize all war industries in France.

The Air Minister stated—the change from private to state ownership will be carried out as far as to avoid any slow-up in production.

FACTORIES AFFECTED

Some ten factories are expected to pass from private ownership into the ranks of the Government under the sweeping new programme. Among them are the great Schneider arms works at Le Creusot, the Schneider machine gun plant, the Brandt arms factory and that part of the Renault works which manufactures tanks.

Under the first measures announced tonight, four state airplane manufacturing companies will be established in various strategic locations in France. The Air Ministry is now drafting incorporation plans for the new companies.

Two-thirds of the capital for each company will be subscribed by the state. Stockholders of the old private companies will be paid off.

Present owners of the factories will be allowed to keep one-third of the stock, and, in addition, will receive nominal dividends. Exports and manipulations of profits and securities of new firms will be controlled by the new companies.

Other enterprises which may shortly pass under Government operation include the naval shipyards now under private ownership.

NEW POLICY IS OPPOSED

Socialists View Neutrality Stand With Disfavor—French Fears Lessened

BRUSSELS, Oct. 16 (CP-Havas). Socialist opposition to Belgium's new neutrality policy developed tonight.

Socialist Deputy Habim formally questioned the Foreign Office on the exact implications of King Leopold's speech, and asked if it meant the Anglo-Franco-Belgian general staff agreement would be abandoned.

The Socialist newspaper Le Peuple editorially announced "serious reserve" on Belgium's new policy, and expressed regret the king's speech referred neither to mutual assistance nor collective security.

STRONGER FRONTIERS

Denying that as a result of the new policy troops would be stationed at the French border, these quarters declared that on the contrary only the east and northeast frontiers would be strengthened.

The king hitherto had rejected the idea of fighting on foreign territory to enforce international treaties, mainly the Lorraine pact, and had, at possible consequences of the Franco-Soviet treaty, Belgian resistance campaigns denouncing the

FLYING BOAT IS OVER ATLANTIC

German Craft Leaves Nova Scotia on Trial Flight To Azores

SYDNEY, N.S., Oct. 16 (P)—The German flying boat Aeolus was catapulted from the mother ship Schwabenland in Sydney Harbor at 7:30 o'clock (P.S.T.) tonight on an experimental flight to the Azores.

The giant ten-ton craft skimmed gracefully over the water before gaining altitude to begin its 1,700-mile hop. The boat took off from the mother ship at a point toward the harbor-mouth below Sydney's international piers. Low ceiling and forebodings of rain did not deter the flyers.

TAKES OFF TODAY

The Zephyr, second of the sister-ships, was scheduled to take off sometime tomorrow, soaring over the Atlantic in pursuit of Aeolus. It was not definitely known tonight if the destination of the two boats, which already have three Atlantic crossings to their credit, would be the same. The Zephyr was expected to head either toward the Azores or toward Bremen, Germany.

UNABLE TO HALT ARMS SHIPMENT

Norwegian Government Disclaims Responsibility for Consignment From Russia to Madrid

OSLO, Oct. 16 (P)—A Norwegian steamer loaded with ammunition destined to the Spanish Madrid Government sailed from the Russian Baltic port today, the Norwegian Telegraph Bureau reported.

The Norwegian Foreign Office promptly announced that strict neutrality regulations prevented it from halting the shipment aboard the vessel, the Bjoernoyen.

Said the Foreign Office, "We scrupulously maintain neutrality and have no judicial power to prevent a Norwegian ship from transporting ammunition from one country to another."

Therefore there has been no breach of neutrality by Norway. The land from which the transport eventually goes should prevent the shipment."

The figures imply that British Columbia export lumber shipments by water world destinations increased by some 36 per cent in the first nine months of this year, reaching a total of 871,256,961 board feet. Provincial forestry officers said yesterday. This compared with 630,807,054 board feet handled in like period last year.

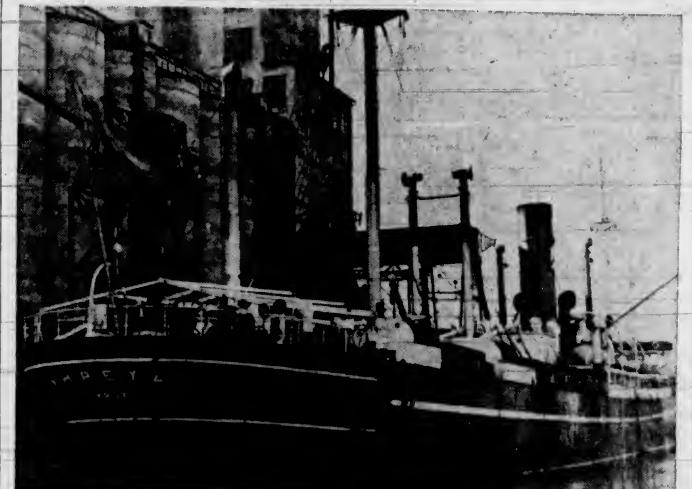

Great Britain was the largest single customer, taking 336,767,244 board feet. Australia was next, with 97,211,859 board feet. China took 82,458,027 board feet; Japan, 52,327,059 board feet; Eastern Canada, 26,059,730 board feet; South Africa, a triple quota of 17,711,810 board feet; the West Indies, 10,994,235 board feet; while smaller lots went to a score of other destinations.

WILL EXCEED RECORD

The figures imply that British Columbia export lumber shipments by water world destinations will exceed a billion board feet this year by the end of the year. Yura undergoing a comfortable margin, to set a new record for the export trade.

The figures are those prepared by the British Columbia lumber inspection service in the might have been caused purposely.

Clearing Ship Bunkers Under Difficulties

Fighting deadly monoxide fumes, Victoria waterfront workers were busy yesterday working in relays to discharge coal from the fuel pockets of the Greek steamship Nereus, lying alongside the grain elevator, Ogden Point Piers. The upper picture shows the ship at the dock, while the bottom one shows some of the men, wearing respirators, who have just reached the deck after a four-hour "trick" below decks.

Haydn's "Creation" Beautifully Given By Combined Choir

Metropolitan and Centennial Churches Provide Choristers for Strikingly-Fine Performance of Oratorio—Soloists Distinguish Themselves

CONCEIVED in a spirit of exalted devotionalism, Haydn's noble work, "The Creation," was presented with the utmost reverence by a choir of between seventy and eighty voices at the Metropolitan Church last evening.

The combined choirs of Metropolitan and Centennial Churches, under the direction of the soloists were Dorothy Parsons, soprano; Dudley Wickett, tenor, and Harry Johns, bass; and at the piano and organ respectively were two splendidly competent musicians, who gave the finest support possible, Maquinna Daniels and Edward Parsons respectively.

Frank Tupman as conductor controlled his choir well, and showed not only a fine knowledge of the vocal material, but also of the subject, which he approached with definiteness of intention. The choruses had crisp movement, the attack always clean, the phrasing and articulation carefully regulated, and the spirit of the singers always alert, happy, interested and enthusiastic. The quality of tone was good, and some beautifully shaded effects were evolved with resulting expressiveness.

CHIEF CHORUSES

The choir began well. "In the Beginning" and "The Mighty Ruler" were well done. "The Marvelous Work" saw the development of assured tone. "Awake the Harp" had just the right alertness and joyousness of spirit. The basses, which close Polyphony, interpreted briefly but permit the introduction of a trio for the three solo voices. The picking up of the chord was smoothly accomplished.

In Part 2 the principal choruses are "The Lord is Great," a section notable for the beauty of the shading; and the second of the choruses entitled "Achieved in the Glorious Work" with its joyously reverent "Hallelujah" was a triumphant expression of praise and creation for the completion of creation.

Part 3, save for a temporary insecurity of tempo, was also splendidly handled. Mr. Tupman having still some tonal effects in reserve for the magnificient final chorus, "Sing the Lord, Ye Voices All," which was a great tour de force chorally.

EXPLAINS NEW SCHOOL PLANS

Major H. B. King Discusses Problems at Annual Convention of Teachers

NANAIMO, Oct. 16.—Speaking at the Friday afternoon session of the annual convention of the Central and Northern Island Teachers' Council here, Major H. B. King, of Victoria, said: "The new school curriculum and in answer to questions arising out of the junior high school section, stated that the course should be considered only as a mimeographed copy and is still open for criticism in its first year.

"The fear of examinations seems to be the main criticism," he said. "But though the tests are the object of the course, the course of study is not, examination. The main change in tests will be on critical thinking rather than memory work. Geography has been added as a subject to be examined and geography and history were related as social studies, thus demanding more care in arranging examinations for pupils. The possibility of only academic teachers being hired was considered by the speaker, who stated that only sixty had achieved this status. The new course would accord backwoods schools better equipment.

Stanley F. Bulley, of Victoria, gave helpful talk on the teaching of music in schools, illustrating the different methods used.

G. E. Apps, Cumberland, was named next year's convention chairman. Election of officers takes place on Saturday.

News of Mr. Gainer's death was received by J. S. Hall, manager of the Victoria branch of Gainer's Limited, of which the late Mr. Gainer was managing director. He was fifty-two years old and had spent six months in Victoria, three months of which were in St. Joseph's Hospital. He was born in Ontario and leaves his widow, one son and three daughters.

RADIO WEEK WILL END TODAY STATE VICTORIA DEALERS

Local Firms Have Made Special Displays of 1937
Radios All Week—Engineering Advance and Cabinet Beauty Are Featured—Improvements Are Seen in Broadcasts

TO DAY sees the finale of Radio Show Week in Victoria. Throughout the week local firms have co-operated in an effort to present in one great panorama the entire offering of radio for the coming season. Every store has been the scene of special displays and demonstrations of the lines carried by the individual firms, and radio fans have flocked to see what is new in the field for 1937. They have not been disappointed, forming a harmonious adjunct to the up-to-date home.

This Fall sees the greatest advance radio has known since the introduction of short-wave reception barely three years ago. New features of design and engineering have revolutionized radio entertainment. Not only have the receiving sets made huge strides in selectivity and amazing life-like reception, but broadcast stations have greatly improved their facilities and are ready to provide a greater range of programmes this Winter.

European authorities recognize in North America the greatest field of short-wave listeners, and the majority of their programmes are designed to find favor this side of the Atlantic. At Daaventry the B.C.C. has spent approximately a million dollars on the station, designed when conceived to be the most powerful in the world.

Wonderful results are being reported from all parts of the city. Listeners in Victoria tuning in on London, Paris, South America and the Orient and receiving programmes with the same power and clarity that they might well expect from KOMO.

Not only in engineering features, but in cabinet design have these new 1937 sets taken vast strides forward. The ornate, over-the-top bread trimmings have been replaced by purity of sweeping lines and artistic finish. The modern radio is designed with the aim of

Horticultural Society Awards Are Presented

Reeve William Crouch, of Saanich, Officiates at Annual Ceremony Here Last Night—Musical Programme and Dance Numbers Given

Complimenting the efforts for its educational programme in respect of the value of home gardening as a means of beautifying the Capital City and the surrounding municipalities, Reeve William Crouch, of Saanich, last night presented medals and trophies to the winners of the Victoria Horticultural Society's 1936 home garden competition.

The presentation of awards was made at an evening of musical and instrumental selections followed by refreshments, served by the ladies' auxiliary to the society. The affair was held in the A.O.F. Hall.

GENEROUS PROGRAMME

D. McTavish, president of the society, was chairman and introduced the following numbers on the programme: Solo by Mrs. M. Dawson, Miss M. O. Mayhew, Miss L. Macdonald and H. J. Appler; violin solo by P. Davidson, come string quartet; Mr. J. Sneddon, solo Len Foster; Scotch reels, Irish jig and reels and Highland fling, by the following pupils of Miss Adeline Grant: Miss Gwen Dewar, Miss Evelyn Watson, Miss Ian Robertson, Miss Lorina Doull and Miss O. Tulloch. Miss Jessie Smith, A.T.C.M., was the accompanist and the pipers for the dancers were Mr. W. H. Pollock and Archie McMillan.

POWERS VARIED

In general, all the powers of the board under the old scheme are renewed, with the exception of pooling. Pooling, however, can be effected by licence fees, quota limits and a variety of other devices, through a licensed agency. The outright purchase plan is being counted on to aid settlement and to obviate disputes as to a share in the fluid milk market.

After the term of the present board expires, new control boards will be set up on an annual basis by the Government and two elected members.

The right of search of vehicles on the public highway and punitive measures of the former scheme are repeated little changed. Vehicles are taken to include motor cars, trucks, boats, trains or other conveyances carrying milk. Powers of confiscation and seizure of milk for infractions of rulings of the board are renewed.

TO DECORATE VICTORIA IN ROYAL STYLE

Junior Chamber of Commerce to Take Part in Diamond Jubilee Work

COLORED STREAMERS OF LIGHTS PLANNED

Illumination and decoration of the city in connection with the Diamond Jubilee next year will be undertaken by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, that body decided at a recent meeting.

The Junior Chamber will work with the City Council committee on the Diamond Jubilee.

—In hope of having Yates Street, from Douglas to Blanshard Streets, strung with illuminated streamers by Christmas week, members plan to solicit the aid of shop proprietors immediately. Letters explaining the scheme to meet the streamers and maintaining them for at least forty days in connection with various functions, will be sent to proprietors.

EXPRESS ENTHUSIASM

Junior Chamber of Commerce members, who approached the matter by John Baker, president of the City Council committee, expressed enthusiasm over the scheme and discussed several other means of decorating the city next year. Not only will Yates Street, from Douglas to Blanshard Streets, be illuminated, but the junior chamber intends to interest shop-keepers on the other main streets.

MAY BE CLUE TO SHOOTING

Revolver Found Probably Used by Slayer of Police Informer

VANCOUVER, Oct. 16 (AP)—A 45-calibre revolver, found by police today, was the only clue held tonight in a search for two gunmen who shot down a police informer in the heart of Vancouver's Chinatown last night.

The gun, containing one lead bullet, was found near the route when the slayers took in making their escape after dropping Quon Quon on a crowded street with a fusillade of shots. It was believed by police to have been used by one of the gunmen.

HIT FOUR TIMES

At an autopsy performed on Quon's body today it was found that four shots had struck him, three in the head and one passing through his body from the back.

The criminal investigation department at the Police Station reported receiving a telephone message from an unknown woman yesterday warning them to keep away from Chinatown.

Police today said they believed the woman may have had information of a plot against the informer and began a search for her.

So far police have not been able to find any actual eye-witnesses of the slaying.

RAPID FUSILLADE

First intimation of the killing was a rapid succession of revolver shots, which drew Orientals scurrying for shelter in the rear of Chinatown along the street. The gunmen then ran down an alley and disappeared.

Quon died as he was being taken to hospital. He had been a police informer for about a year.

DECLARER ROADS DISAPPOINTING

California Visitor Says Island Must Do Something to Compete With Mexico Programme

"Compared with what American motorists have become accustomed to, Vancouver Island roads are terribly disappointing," remarked George B. Mauer, retired Hollywood business man, who is visiting the Empress Hotel with Mrs. Mauer. They drove here from California and were delighted with the natural beauty of the Island.

If Vancouver Island expects to compete with Mexico as a holiday playground, it must do much to improve its roads and build new ones to open up the country, in Mr. Mauer's opinion. He reminded that Mexico is spending millions on improving roads.

The Los Angeles is experiencing a real estate boom, the visitor reported. Building is in progress everywhere, money is free and with the population increased considerably of late, it is difficult to find houses, suites or apartments.

Mr. Mauer is a descendant of the Mauer family that founded the Mauer firearms and ammunition works.

Royal Jubilee Hospital Reports An Average of 365 Per Day—Donations Acknowledged

The monthly meeting of the Jubilee Hospital board of directors was held Tuesday night, with the president, Hugh McPherson, in the chair. The superintendent reported a total of 9,142 hospital days and an average of 365 patients per day. While the figures are considerably higher than September of last year, the total is not as great as last August, it was reported.

The heating committee reported the installation of two water-tube boilers completed and in operation. This work was done by the mechanical staff of the hospital without any additional cost.

A large number of donations were acknowledged during the month, naming them being curtains for the Strathearn Ward, and $900 towards a new operating table from the Ladies' Auxiliary. The Daughters of the Empire gave $200 to provide cubicles for the children's ward, and the primary department of the Metropolitan Church—Sunday School sent fruit, and Mrs. N. Yarrow donated a large number of books.

Alberta Youth Succumbs to Injuries Sustained in Accident On Road

ALBERTA, Oct. 16 (AP)—R. Bobbie Hamilton, nineteen-year-old Alberta youth, died here today the result of injuries suffered late yesterday when pinned beneath a donkey engine on the McCow Lake Road.

The youth was said to have been assisting in moving the engine on a track when the road caved in toppling the engine over on top of him. Workmen dug for more than an hour before being able to remove him from under the heavy engine.

He suffered fractures of both legs, a ruptured pelvis and stomach ruptures.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gareth Hamilton; three brothers and three sisters.

COMBAT RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is often caused by uric acid in the blood. This blood impurity should be extracted by the kidneys. If kidneys fail, and excess uric acid remains, it irritates the muscles and joints causing excruciating pains.

Men can prevent rheumatism by keeping kidneys in good condition. Take regularly Dodd's Kidney Pills—for half a century the favorite kidney remedy.

Court of Appeal Victoria Sittings

Present: The Chief Justice, McPhillips and McQuarrie, J.J.A.

J. & B. Nicol v. E. E. Heath: This is an appeal by defendant from an order of Robertson, J. dated April 29, 1936.

On March 7, 1935, the plaintiffs commenced an action for an account against Heath, who had been their agent from 1922 until June 1, 1934. After appearance the plaintiffs took out a summons under Order XV, and as the defendant did not satisfy the court that there was some preliminary question to be tried, an order was made on March 27, 1935, for an account and the further consideration was adjourned.

In the accounts left with the registrar, the defendant charged commission on collections and interest thereon, although, in all the statements of account rendered to the plaintiffs down to October 19, 1932, he had never done so. He alleged before the registrar that his reason for doing so was that the plaintiffs had committed a breach of a contract agreed to have been made in 1914 by their mother, Mrs. Nicol, to the benefit of the defendant, to the effect that if plaintiffs would not charge the commissions which he is now claiming, a large sum of money about $300,000 would be subsequently placed with him for investment and through this he hoped to make a considerable profit. The plaintiffs were not present when this alleged agreement was made, nor did the defendant ever mention it to them.

The defendant went with each monthly statement up to October 19, 1932, a cheque to cover the balance shown on the account to date due to the plaintiffs. Mrs. Nicol died in 1922. The registrar adjourned the matter for instructions from the court as to the legal scope upon which the account should be taken.

The judge held, assuming the alleged contract had been made, the defendant's claim would be in damages for its breach, and not for commissions, and further, in all probability his claim would be one which could only be enforced against the estate of the late Mrs. Nicol. His lordship, therefore, directed the registrar to proceed with the taking of the accounts and reject the claim for commission.

The court sustained the preliminary objection and quashed the appeal.

M. B. Jackson, K.C. for appellant.

case was called on yesterday before the court as above constituted.

Mr. Haldane, for the respondent, following the case of Maryfield Board v. the Male Minimum Wage Board, 1931, 44 B.C. 38, raised the preliminary objection that the time was not yet ripe for appeal, that the judge below had directed the taking of the accounts and that the preliminary objection be proceeded with. This had not been done, and, therefore, there was not a final disposition of the case reached so as to give ground for appeal. All that had occurred was an intermediary ruling on a point involved in the proceeding.

The court sustained the preliminary objection and quashed the appeal.

CANADA AND THE CORONATION

The arrangements for the King's coronation proceed apace. Many and various are the "claims" that have to be considered and passed upon by the proper authorities as to the rights of certain individuals to personal attendance and service to be rendered to the King upon that occasion. Two illustrations may be mentioned, one a claim originating in England, the other originating in Scotland. The English claim comes from the Free or Dissenting Churches of that part of the United Kingdom. The Federal Council of Free Churches has put forth a claim to an official share in the great event on the ground that they represent half of the Christian population of England. Difficulties have arisen in the attempt to meet this claim, because it involves fundamental questions relating to the Established State Church of England.

The claim originating in Scotland is on a quite different footing and must be considered from an entirely different angle. It is necessary to bear in mind the fact that in the United Kingdom there are two State Churches by law established, the Church of England (episcopal) and the Church of Scotland (presbyterian). These two established churches have enjoyed equal status in the eyes of the law ever since the United Kingdom came into existence in 1707, the date of the Union of the two Parliaments. The statement of the Scottish claim comes, appropriately enough, from Saint Andrew's Manse, Castle Douglas, Kirkcudbrightshire. The public are reminded in a letter sent to the press that Scotland is well aware of her place and rights in the national life and that the Scottish Heralds have claimed that they ought to be invited to the function at Westminster in their official capacity and not merely as guests. It is true that the King is an Episcopalian while on English soil, but when he crosses the Border into Scotland he is a Presbyterian, and this fact, so the claim asserts, ought to be "recognized in the due and active participation in the ceremony of coronation by representative ministers of the Northern Establishment, say the Moderator of the General Assembly and the Dean of the Thistle and Chapel Royal."

The position which Canada, in common with the other Dominions, occupies within the Imperial structure today is quite different, in theory at least, from that in which it stood when King George V ascended the throne. During the quarter-century that has passed since that time certain constitutional changes of a far-reaching character have come to pass. In 1926 the Imperial Conference decided the group of self-governing communities consisting of Great Britain and the Dominions as "autonomous Communities within the British Empire, equal in status, in no way subordinate to one another in any aspect of their domestic and foreign affairs, though united in a common allegiance to the Crown, and freely associated as members of the British Commonwealth of Nations." In 1931 the Parliament of the United Kingdom, in compliance with addresses from the Parliaments of the Dominions, passed the Statute of Westminster, which confirmed the autonomy of the Dominions, and this Statute received the Royal Assent in December of that year.

In some distinctive way the fact of this momentous change of status should be recognized at the Coronation. That ceremony, to be celebrated in the capital of the United Kingdom, which is also the capital of the Empire, should include a clearly-marked feature to give effect to the definition of the equal status of the several units forming the Commonwealth. It should not prove unduly difficult for those in charge of these matters to devise some appropriate method by which the intimate relation between King and People in the case of Canada (and of course of the other Dominions) may be concretely symbolized.

THE WOMEN'S WORKROOM

Funds are the sinews of almost all philanthropic effort, and it is the humanitarian outlook of the public that has to be appealed to where human needs exist. That is the case at present with the Women's Workroom, a benevolent effort which grew out of the time of depression and which filled, and still fills, a definite place for alleviating suffering in the community. The Workroom has helped some hundreds of women carry on and earn a modest competence by training them by supervising their work and by making them feel that they retain their self-respect by giving a return for the services rendered to them. There is no other work of its character in the city. It does not conflict with the activities of any other organization. It has, from its inception, been well managed and marked by public-spirited appreciation of what it stands for in the lives of the women it assists. Its record, indeed, may well be pointed to with pride in what can be accomplished in maintaining the feeling of independence among those who have fallen on evil days.

The point to be emphasized in connection with the activities of this institution is that the Workroom is not self-sustaining. It has to rely, in a measure, on public philanthropy, and its finances have now reached a low ebb. At the annual meeting a few days ago it was pointed out that while the cash donations for the first year had reached a total of $9,922.52, they had dropped during the past year to $3,004.75. The need for funds is not so great now as in the early years of the depression, but a sum of $5,000 a year is required if the Workroom is to function at its fullest capacity. It is by no means a large sum, and the fact that it was possible to secure nearly twice as much for the first year of the Workroom's operations is an indication that the public recognize its usefulness. It should be only necessary now to remind them that the Workroom is still functioning and filling a place of usefulness in the city to insure that the money wanted for its continuance will be subscribed. The institution has many friends who admire its conduct. They can indicate their admiration and their will to help by sending donations to the treasurer, Mrs. R. R. Taylor, 1386 Monterey Avenue, or to the offices of Messrs. Gillespie, Hart & Co., 611 Fort Street.

MECHANIZATION IN MEDICINE

The danger in medicine is its mechanization, and a warning to this effect has been given by Lord Horder. There are now, he says, the instrument makers dictating standards, just as if a doctor's patients may not express individually even in their blood pressure. Then there is the doctrinaire attitude towards diet adopted by pundits which appeals to many patients. There is a belief that any day medicine may discover a standard diet. Lord Horder says that the doctor's business is to count all this and reveal the patient to himself. The doctor has to be a humanist, "to examine carefully, to explain clearly, to instruct hopefully and to watch diligently."

Lord Horder gives instances of recent attempts to mechanize medicine in the exploitation of instruments of precision, in the elaboration of bacteriological and bio-chemical methods, in the commercialization of pharmacology and in the rapid sequence of new machinery in physiotherapy. He sees good in these things, but says they must not overlay and replace the most essential factor in the diagnosis and treatment of disease, which is the personal contact of doctor and patient. There is too much belief in the patient, who has seen so much of life mechanized, that he believes the same process can apply to medicine.

The medical faculty knows full well that while the body of the patient is sensitive enough, that flimsy gossamer is not more delicate and in more need of gentle approach than some of the minds with which doctors have to deal. The doctor has to what he can to protect his patient against death, if that is possible, against pain, and also against the quack who would fatten on his infirmities, against his friends, often so-called, and too often against himself. The doctor, therefore, as well as availing himself of the mechanics of medicine, must be a humanist, all the more especially in these latter days when the human mind, generally speaking, seems more apprehensive of new troubles than it ever was before.

It is said that a silent motor car is a rebuke to the ill manners of its driver. Working on this assumption the British Minister of Transport has obtained undertakings that no offensively noisy sports car or motorcycle will be built in future in Great Britain for use on the roads. This is a step in the direction of soothing the modern disease of rattled nerves.

THE PEREGRINATORS

Some weeks ago a member of the Canadian Government, in a moment of erudition and courtesy, called a prominent British visitor a "peregrinating imperialist," Dictionary meaning:

Peregrination—A traveling about; a sojourning in foreign countries.

The Minister who launched the epithet had just returned from some peregrinating on his own account. In fact, he and five or six of his governmental colleagues had spent the better part of the Summer peregrinating. Two other than others are doing a bit of peregrinating in their own world at the moment; while another who had been peregrinating about Europe during the Summer months is now on a peregrination to the other side of the globe.

So as peregrinators, the gentlemen of our Dominion Government are not to be sneezed at. Indeed, when it comes to peregrinating they can give the "imperialist" cards and spades and make him look like a stay-at-home. Tennyson's "travell'd men from foreign lands" certainly had nothing on the ministerial globetrotters of this country—Halifax Herald.

There are nine species of maple trees in Canada, but the sugar maple is the most valuable commercially. It provides an annual income with its Spring harvest of syrup. As lumber it is especially adapted to flooring and paneling. It is a high polish and is easy to work. Curly maple and bird's-eye maple are particularly prized for furniture. It has been introduced into many countries successfully. Appropriately, the Dominion selected the leaf of the maple as the national emblem.

One improper word or act will neutralize the effect of many good ones, and one base deed, after years of noble service, will cover them all with shame.—Aughey.

Everyone must see daily instances of people who complain from a mere habit of complaining.—Graves.

RATEPAYERS MAY NAME CANDIDATE

Selection of candidates for election to the City Council and School Board will be discussed at a meeting to be held in the committee room at the City Hall on November 6, the executive committee of Victoria Ratepayers' Association decided at a brief meeting last evening. Mrs. Julia de Blaquer presided.

Those present expressed regret that a recent meeting of ratepayers had been called in the name of the executive without authority of the executive. It was agreed that a public meeting to hear candidates for the council and School Board should be called before the civic election in December.

TRAVERSE CASE

Mr. Jackson, upon the conclusion of the Osgood case, asked on behalf of the Crown that the case of Rev. vs. Mehta Singh, which was a charge of perjury, be tried from the present court to the next sitting, which was consented to.

BUMPED OFF SNAKE IN THE DARKNESS

WALTERBORO, B.C., Oct. 16 (AP)—Mrs. Lily Williams felt a bump, heard the rocker of her chair crunch as she reclined in placid conversation with a neighbor.

It was dark and she didn't bother to investigate, but next morning she found a dead rattlesnake on the porch floor, its head crushed.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

Dear Mr. Culbertson:

"There is nothing remarkable about the hand I am enclosing, but it was the cause of a mild argument between my wife and myself. I can truthfully say 'mild,' because as you will see, no great catastrophe resulted. The four-spade contract was reached. North's hand was cold, and the tenth simple could not be made on the one-trick penalty which cheerfully conceded.

The point of the matter is that my wife, who was South, thought I overbid in jumping her opening spade bid to three. Did I?

Merv truly yours,

Dominion Board Meeting Is Brought to Close Here

Anglican W.A. Undertakes to Supply Nurse for Moose Factory Settlement—Next Annual Meeting Will Be Held in Halifax

A busy week for the Dominion board of the Anglican W.A. of the Church of England in Canada was brought to a close yesterday, the day including the reading of reports, general discussion and farewells addresses. Business resumed in the morning at 10 o'clock, following prayer led by Mrs. Low, of Ontario Diocesan Board.

"Several announcements were made by the corresponding secretary with regard to missionaries, one of whom, Miss Hilda Robinson, has been given honorary honorary status, the meeting expressing its approval by a standing vote.

GOING TO CHINA

Another week has been the appointment of Mrs. May Watts as secretary-treasurer for the W.A. in the Diocese of Honan in China to take the place of Dr. Simmonds, who recently passed away. Mrs. Watts will sail for China on November 14 and the Diocese of New Westminster will arrange a farewell for her.

Mrs. Donaldson, Dominion treasurer, read a telegram from Canon Gould, giving the salary that was to be paid for a nurse at Moose Factory Hospital, which the board decided to underwrite. The names of the four elected members of the finance committee were brought in by Miss Nicolls, those receiving the highest number of votes being Miss Street, Mrs. Cuttle, Mrs. Alex Strachan, vice-president for Eastern Canada, and Mrs. McIntyre, of Fredericton Diocesan Board. Miss Summerhays proxy for the president of Toronto, spoke in favor of the report of the educational year brought in by Miss Pheope, which was adopted by the meeting.

TO WORK ON PRAIRIE
After serious consideration, the board decided to embark upon a necessary and to begin by training a suitable person to work among the white settlers on the Prairies, the salary to be raised as a memorial to the late Miss Slater, acting upon a suggestion by Miss Checkley, one of the Columbia board delegates.

The report of Mrs. Winter, of Brandon Diocesan Board, was adopted and highly commended. The committee to report on the president's report brought in its findings, which were adopted by the board, among them being a permanent memorial to Mrs. Bumpas, in the city of her birth.

TO MEET IN HALIFAX
A message of congratulation from the meeting was sent to Mrs. McElhanan upon the completion of the restoration plan. An invitation to the board to hold next year's meeting in Halifax, N.S., was enthusiastically accepted. The place of the Spring executive meeting was left to the executive to decide.

Votes of thanks were conveyed to all who had been responsible for the arrangements and the success of the meeting, which has been a memorable occasion for all concerned.

Bishop Sexton's closing words were full of encouragement and wise counsel. "To go forward in the strength and power of the Lord, with gratitude for past work accomplished and determination to extend the W.A. to include all church women, sea to sea."

THE LUNCHEON

Special guests at the farewell luncheon included Rt. Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of Columbia; Rev. O. L. Jill, Miss Carlisle, and the Dominion diocesan officers. Lady Lake expressed good wishes to all the Dominion board members setting forth on their return journey, carrying with them, she hoped, a pleasant memory of Victoria and the good wishes of all their friends in the westernmost diocese.

The meeting of the executive committee was held at 2:30 p.m. in the chapel-rooms of the Memorial Hall, and, at close, tea was served in

Y.P.S. News

The regular meeting of the Field United Church W.M.S. was held yesterday afternoon at the church, with the president in the chair. The opening hymn was sung and was followed by the Lord's Prayer. The devotional under direction of Mrs. Pauline Green, sang "My Task." The rest of the program included a pageant depicting the beginning of the W.M.S. sixty years ago. Twelve ladies of the presbyterian in the costumes of that age, under the chairmanship of Mrs. D. A. Girvin Duncan, ably portrayed the first meeting. Mrs. W. G. Wilson gave an address on the growth of the society, and Mrs. C. E. Sonley brought figures of last year to show the present standing of the society. Appreciation was expressed to the ladies and Victorian bonnets were presented by two small girls to those taking part in the programme. Tea was served after the meeting.

St. Joseph's Auxiliary
St. Joseph's Senior Auxiliary met recently to finish final arrangements for the bazaar to be held at the Nurses' Home on November 12 from 2 o'clock in the afternoon to late in the evening. Mrs. Frank Sehl presided over the business. The sewing conveners reported 218 pieces completed and 455 sponges made during the month. Formal Evening Frocks, Street Dresses, Sports Clothes and Hats Arrive From Style Centres And Are Displayed by Mannequins

The irresistible appeal of the season's newest fashions drew a large crowd to Angus Campbell's Ltd., on Thursday afternoon and a fascinating display of gowns for all occasions was shown by the mannequins.

There is a decided "feminine" trend in the fall fashions, and ruffles, "swing" skirts, ornamentation of all kinds and gowns designed on the style lines gone by, yet characterized by an up-to-date sophistication were admired by the throng of spectators. Necklines are lower, daytime skirts shorter, dainties and "line" play an important part and rich materials are typical of the more formal frocks.

FROM NOTED DESIGNERS

Several creations from the great designers such as Lucile, Molyneux, Alix, Lucille, Paray and others had individual and distinct charm. A lovely Molyneux evening gown worn by Miss Brinkman was made with huge stiffened sleeves, while another dinner gown was fashioned with cordings which gave the wide skirt a balloon-like appearance.

An orchid crepe gown embroidered in a metallic thread design, was decidedly sophisticated, and a combination of black velvet and gold-hammered satin made with a separate tunic, when removed, revealed the smart formal gown beneath.

LACE FAVORITES

Lace is still popular, and a parchment lace over brown, worn by Miss M. Ball, was fashioned with a graceful sleeveless bodice edged with squirrel. Miss Lillian Michaels modeled a stunning lace ensemble of black broadcloth, on long sweeping lines, the shoulder straps of sapphire blue velvet and the top of the decolletage outlined with stiffened loops of velvet. Miss Ball showed an attractive black velvet ensemble, made with a bodice of lace lace.

The daytime frocks were shown with variety of trimming braid, buttons and embroidery being used with stunning effect. The coats show the same swing trend as the frocks. Fur is used on pockets, around hems and tunic, on collars and even for an oversleeve effect.

GOLDFLEX FROCKS

The Golflex frocks for street wear were equally beautifully cut, while among the favorite colors shown were orange, yellow, red and green. The newest knitted suits are made with attractive lace-stitch jumpers.

With the coats and street frocks

He had arrived home late, and was being told all about it by his wife. At last he lost his temper, and said a few things back.

"I don't care," he said. "I mean exactly what I say. I'm a man who calls a spade a spade."

His wife snorted. "Maybe," she said icily, "you do call a spade a spade, but you don't call a club a club—you call that working late at the office."

The services in Metropolitan United Church tomorrow will be featured by special music by the choir and the farewell appearance of Madame Lugini Fahey. Madame Fahey, of Toronto, who is well known in her native city of Victoria, has been singing the past Sunday at the Metropolitan Church. Due to numerous requests and to the fact that many have been turned away at last Sunday's evening service, she has consented to give another recital of sacred song at the close of the evening service, commencing promptly at 9 o'clock.

Madame Fahey will include one of her own numbers in the programme for the recital, which follows: "God Is My Shepherd" and "I Will Sing New Songs of Gladness" (Dvorak), "Open the Gates of the Temple" (Knapp); "Hear Ye, Israel" (Menken's "Eliza J. alibi"), "Littleby" (Lancaster), "The Lost Chord" (Sullivan), and the Gospel hymn "God Will Take Care of You."

SUNSHINE CAMP DID MUCH GOOD

Five-Six Families Benefited
By Holiday at Sasenos
During Summer

At the October board meeting of the Friendly Help Welfare Association, it was reported by the camp committee that fifty-six families, including fifty-six men and 103 children, also forty teen-age girls, had attended the Fred Lansberg Sunshine Camp during the Summer, and that almost all had gained weight.

The camp remained open for only two months this year, and the inclusive cost per capita per diem was 64 cents. Entertainments of various kinds were provided by groups and individual citizens, while transportation was arranged by the service club and by the Vancouver Island Coach Lines. Sunday services were conducted each week, the Ministerial Association having arranged for a rotation of ministers.

DONATIONS RECEIVED

Donations of food, fuel and clothing were received from various firms and private citizens. Ten volunteer workers assisted the camp staff in the running of the camp, while others helped with committee work and publicity. A number of doctors gave their services, examining the families before they left for camp, and in minor ailments that developed at the camp. This year there was no serious illness.

The treasurer's report for the month of September showed receipts by the Friendly Help Welfare Association for its regular work of $378.00 and expenditures of $752.35. Part of this latter sum consisted of some August bills held over until September. N. F. Ferris, treasurer, reported favorably on increasing contributions during the first two weeks of October, including a number of monthly subscribers payingable directly through the banks.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

The general secretary's report showed that ninety-one families had arranged some form of assistance during September. Eight of the ninety-one had not previously been known to the association. Of the treasury was to be set up in Victoria shortly. Mr. Dent urged moral support of this work by the clubmen.

EXHIBITION WILL BE PRESENTED MONDAY

David Ellis, F.T.S., lecturer and historian, who is traveling on the British Empire tour of the London Bridge and Mastercrafts Exhibition, will describe and depict the extraordinary life-like scenes of century-old houses, in the dungeons of the Tower of London, when the exhibition comes to the Crystal Garden for three days, starting Monday, October 19.

Mr. Ellis is appreciated for his graphic, lurid and tragic descriptions of atrocious deeds and conditions that prevailed in the days of extreme intrigue and conspiracy for power. His lecture will be a life-like picture of the times before his auditors, as presented in the many terrible aspects when the London Tower Bridge and Mastercrafts Exhibition Company comes to Victoria.

MISSING FISHERMAN
FOUND IN SAFETY

VANCOUVER, Oct. 18 (UPI) — 3.

Muto, 50-year-old Japanese fisherman, who had been missing since he left Vancouver Island for North Galiano Island last Sunday, has been located at Vancouver Beach, British Columbia, police officers announced today.

Muto put in at Vancouver Beach on Thursday with engine trouble, it was said.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

LOOKING FOR THE EASY WAY TO REDUCE WEIGHT

Many overweight individuals have the idea that they could only get hold of the right method of reducing weight—some special drug or combination of drugs—they would get rid of their excess weight without any difficulty.

Now there are really the two methods of reducing—less food or energy must be taken into the body or more energy or fat must be given up or used by the body.

Naturally the simplest or easiest of the two methods would be to eat less food than at present, and then the body would have to give up some of its own fat, in order to supply the fuel or food for its exercise.

And so, as cutting down on food is out of the question, they think of the other method of reducing weight—exercise—which burns up some of the excess fat or weight every time it is taken.

But here again there is difficulty. Every time the overweight takes exercise, he has to move this extra weight on his body and the effort is of course much greater than in one of normal weight. Naturally then, having to move this excess weight when he exercises, he doesn't like exercise as it again means sacrifice.

Unfortunately the use of the most popular of these drugs—gland extracts—pituitary and thyroid—and the new drug—dinitrophenol are unsafe unless under medical supervision. The thyroid extract has caused cases of the severe type of goitre, rachitis and even death itself.

PHEASANT AND QUAIL SEASONS WILL OPEN TODAY

Game Birds Will Attract Hunters To the Districts

Partridge and Ducks Will Also Become Lawful Game Today, as Well as Grouse—Local Nimrods Head for Favoured Spots at Daybreak —Reports From Up-Island Favorable

With the opening of the bird seasons at daybreak today, local nimrods were yesterday shooting up their shotguns and replenishing their ammunition supplies for another shooting season. Long before the daylight breaks through the skies this morning, many sportsmen will be on the road traveling to their favorite haunts, in order to get a good start when the season officially gets underway.

Pheasants, cock birds only, will be lawful game to-day, and before nightfall many of the nimrods will be trekking back home with a bag of game. The initial day's shooting, reports favoring from Saanich and Ucluelet points are fairly favorable, while in some instances there is a reported shortage of game birds.

Saanich and the Cowichan Valley are expected to attract the majority of the scatter-gummers in search of pheasants, while duck hunters will, in all probability, make for Cowichan Bay and Chemainus. Farther north, even to Oyster River and Union Bay, will go many of the nimrods in search of willow grouse.

LIMITS FOR SEASON

Seasons for willow grouse and quail are for fifteen days only, from October 17 to October 31, both days inclusive. The bag limit is six daily and twenty-five for the season for willow grouse, and ten daily and fifty for the season for quail.

Pheasants will be lawful game from today until November 15. Sportsmen are allowed to bag three daily and twenty during the season. European partridge will be in season from October 17 to November 15. The bag limits are six daily, twenty-five for the season. Ducks will be in season until December 15. Nimrods are limited to twelve daily and 125 for the complete season.

THE TUTTS... By Crawford Young

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

TO SET ONE'S CAP FOR

Nowadays, people are said to set their cap for any and everything.

The object of the cap-setting may be a job, the indulgence of a pet whim, the realization of a particular ambition.

In none of these instances is a cap actually set; nor does a cap figure at all—except in the case of a woman, let us say, who sets her cap for a certain man—which is the intrinsic sense in which the phrase first came into being.

The original allusion was to the most seductive woman a man could possess, and which she wore only on the occasion when she was doing her utmost to look her best and so attract the favorable attention of some especial man—for whom she would be said to have set her cap.

Jane Dixon Says:

IN THE ROUND-UP: ONE WOMAN WANTS TO KNOW WHETHER DIVORCE IS A DISGRACE; ANOTHER, HOW TO BECOME A NEWS-PAPERWOMAN; ANGRY WIFE SHOULD Toss HER TEMPER OUT OF THE WINDOW; THE YOUNG MAN WHO LOVES A GIRL, SIX-TEEN, OUGHT TO GIVE HER A CHANCE TO GROW UP

Round-Up. So let's get going.

Esther: Divorce a disgrace? I do not know about your religion, but I may tell you that the law of the country in which you live admits of divorce, and that no law of your country by which you abide will disagree.

Jo-Sue: So you want to be a newspaperwoman?

A laudable ambition, but one difficult to achieve. I cannot tell you how to become a newspaperwoman. I have the good fortune to be one myself, but if I were to be shot at sunrise unless I gave the correct answer I could not tell you how I got that way.

My suggestion is that you get a copy of the book, "Ladies of the Press," which has just been issued. It is written by Ishbel Ross, one of the first-line newspaperwomen of the present era, and it contains case histories of those women who have made their grade in press work for the last several decades. Select from this book the careers of the newspaperwoman or woman you should like to emulate, then go forth and do likewise.

Carlo: If the girl bores you and you would rather not take her out for an evening, why take her out? You are doing both yourself and her injustice by pretending. The honest thing would be to find something worth while to do, then tell her you are busy. A real excuse always registers 100 per cent better than a phoney one.

Angry Wife: You will not save your domestic situation by continual displays of temper. You've tried it for three years, and things are worse instead of better. Broken dishes are just broken dishes that may be replaced. But a calm and loving wife can not be easily replaced. Since you love your husband, and he loves you, toss your temper out of the window and the next time the storm blows up, try a laugh instead of a snarl.

Eager: Where would I go on my vacation? Somewhere I've never been. My second choice would be somewhere I've been and liked a lot. On my first choice it matters not whether the object is far—or near so long as it is new. On the second choice, it must be good enough to whip up an appetite for seconds. The same as having a favorite dish and the next day wishing you could order it all over again.

Twenty-Five: My dear young man give the girl a chance to grow up. She wants to graduate. Let her graduate! The knowledge she acquires, fundamental, will be an asset to your home if and when you marry. Love does not demand sacrifice. Love gives service. So cheer the girl on her way and see what happens when she has achieved her ambition—to be a high school graduate.

Lonely Man: Sorry, but I cannot contract to find the right woman for you. Nor can any other honest person undertake the task. It is your own task, and you will be competent, to do it if you will be in search of friendship. See how many new friends you can make in the next six months. Go on the giving end and see what success you have. And please let me know what happens.
